PAUHI FOUNDATION
Transforming Lives in the Hawaiian Community

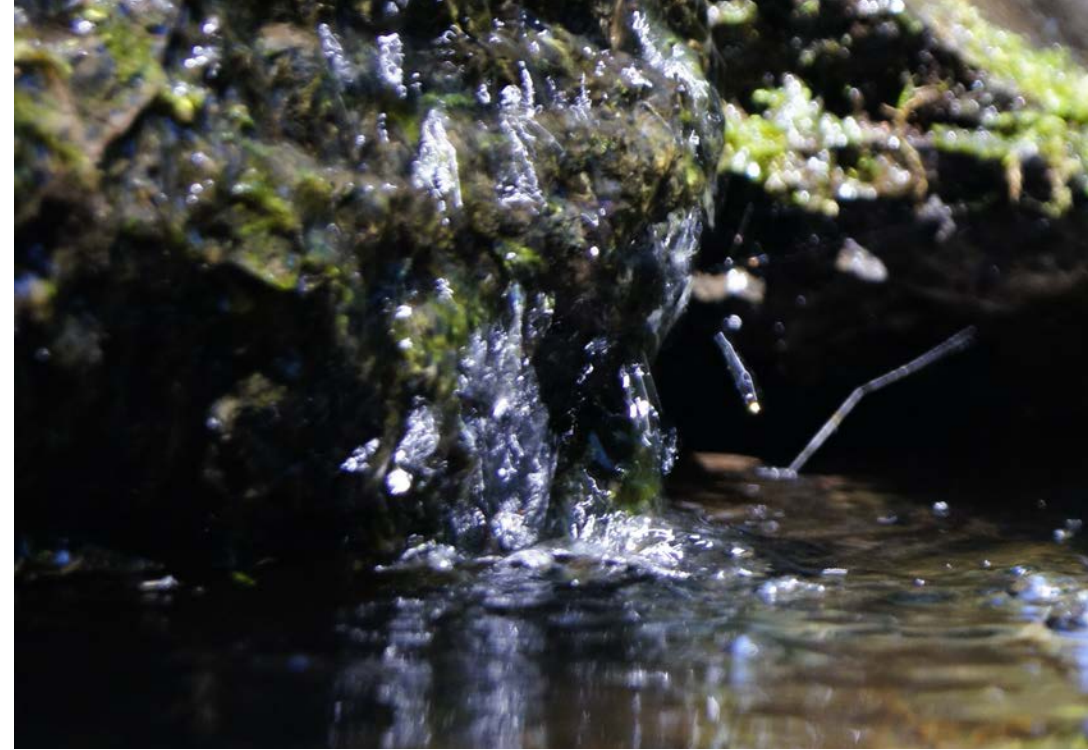

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MESSAGE

Aloha mai kākou,

Wai, or water, is so highly valued in the Hawaiian culture that the very word for "value" or "wealth" is the repeat of the original: waiwai. Water plays a number of important roles during our daily lives. It hydrates us, cleans us, cools us, cooks food when heated, and helps grow plants and trees in our soil. Without it we would perish, without exception.

The cyclical and recurring journey of water is the perfect example of a continual sequence of giving and growth, and this journey was the catalyst for the creation of our Paka Ua movement, which began this past fiscal year. Picture a single raindrop. Think of it forming in a white mist high above the slopes of Wai'ale'ale on Kaua'i. Imagine it falling through the sky from its home in the clouds and gently bouncing off of a leaf in a tall fertile canopy. See this single drop strike the earth and immediately join with other raindrops that have followed distinctly separate, yet similar paths. Those drops unite, they become a small pool and gravity begins to pull its mass down the slopes.

But that is merely the beginning of each drop's journey. These drops will combine to form a stream, and possibly a river. Some will jump from the flow and dive into the dirt to feed the roots that built the canopy above. Others will form their own path, or be diverted, to nourish crops of edible plants. Still others will be used for hydration, or cleansing, or play. And after each important use, the drop becomes mist again rising up into the clouds to find a new place to descend upon and bring its nourishment. This is the journey of each and every donor to the Pauahi Foundation. Every single Paka Ua donor who has committed to the cycle of support for our Hawaiian learners is the human embodiment of life-giving water. Without each drop, there is no stream, no nourishment. Without commitment, the source becomes limited.

Ho'omoe wai kāhi ke kāo'o

Let all travel together like water flowing in one direction.

Mary Kawena Pukui: 'Ōlelo No'eau, 1102

Last year, more raindrops, or paka ua, joined the Pauahi Foundation in its efforts to create educational opportunities for Hawaiian learners than in any other year of our existence. For that, thank you. Your commitment to the vision of Bernice Pauahi Bishop is inspiring and appreciated. Without you, there is no rain, and without rain, there is no nourishment.

As you browse through this annual report, I hope you will beam at the thought that each and every one of you made these stories, these results, these outcomes, a reality.

I thank you again for all that you made possible, and for your commitment to being a raindrop for our lāhui.

Me ka ha'aha'a

Keawe Liu, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It serves to acknowledge and celebrate the many successful outcomes we have experienced throughout the year, all of which are due to the unique and solid partnerships we have established with generous individuals, organizations and groups.

MARK LUPENUI KSK'82: ULA BAKER SHEECHA SCHOLARSHIP

Ever since he was young, Mark Lupenui KSK'82 has had a love for art and a dream to become a great artist. However, coming from a blue-collar family, he felt the pressure to walk a "more sensible" path and opted for a bachelor of arts in social sciences.

After college, Lupenui took on jobs as a salesman, security guard and forklift driver just to pay the rent. But he still yearned to make art, so he took on jobs as a freelance illustrator and graphic designer. This still wasn't enough to pay the rent and he struggled with what to do with his life.

"I felt I had wasted my big chance to go to school because I had been afraid to share my dream with my family," Lupenui said.

Through his continued passion for art, and the constant support of his wife, Cheryl, he applied and got accepted to the master's program at the Academy of Art University in San Francisco.

With the help of the Pauahi Foundation's Ula Baker Sheecha Scholarship, he now has the opportunity to pursue his dreams.

"The Foundation's scholarship has allowed me more time to pursue my master's degree by taking some of the financial burden," said Lupenui.

"It serves as a reminder of the importance of completing this leg of my journey, so I can fulfill my kuleana to the Foundation by giving back to our Native Hawaiian community."

Now in the second half of his master's program, Lupenui is thriving in his study of art with a 3.6 grade point average. He recently received approval to move forward with his thesis project which is based on a series of portraits of contemporary Hawaiians.

"The joy and appreciation is indescribable. My future seems brighter than I could have ever imagined!" Lupenui said.

2013 Nanea Scholarship Recipient Ikaika Moreno.

IKAIKA MORENO: NANEA SCHOLARSHIP

Ikaika Moreno knows what it's like to face and overcome hardship. At the age of 14, he became a father of two.

"Not only was providing for my children a hardship, but also learning how to become a father, a role model and a friend to them at such a young age," Moreno said.

His life before college consisted of living paycheck to paycheck. He soon realized that this was not the path he wanted for himself or his daughters. Obtaining a degree in healthcare had been a life-long dream, so he decided that a major in nursing would be a great fit.

To help with tuition, Moreno applied for and received the Pauahi Foundation's 2013 Nanea Scholarship, a multi-year scholarship awarded specifically to students from Hawai'i Island.

"The Nanea Scholarship allowed me to work fewer hours and focus on my studies to successfully progress towards completing my degree," Moreno said.

He has come a long way and has grown along side his children, who are now in their teens.

"Currently as a full-time student, an employee, and father, I'm being the greatest role model that I can be for my daughters," said Moreno. "Receiving funding from the Pauahi Foundation makes me feel privileged and proud to be of Hawaiian ancestry."

ʻOla i ka wai a kā ʻōpua

*There is a life in the water from the clouds.
Mary Kawena Pukui: ʻŌlelo Noʻeau, 2482*

HE PAKA UA, A RAINDROP, MAKES AN IMPACT, BUT TOGETHER WITH OTHER RAINDROPS, ITS IMPACT IS TRANSFORMATIVE.

Beginning fiscal year ended 2013 - 2014, the Pauahi Foundation created nine new giving clubs, or hui, to celebrate the diversity of our donors and the impact of their gifts.

The new giving clubs tie into our larger Paka Ua movement, with each level honoring a different form of rain and the important role it plays in sustaining life.

In addition, we have highlighted donors who, over the years, have attained a significant level of cumulative giving. We are grateful for their continued support of our mission. These donors are noted with a 5+ (Donor for at Least Five Consecutive Years) and 10+ (Donor for at Least Ten Consecutive Years). Donors with deceased (†) and staff (s) designations reflect those that occurred within the fiscal year (July 1, 2013 – June 30, 2014).

KA HUI KŪLANIHĀKO‘I: $10,000 OR MORE

Kūlanihāko‘i is the source of rain in the clouds. It is the mythical pond or a lake in the sky. It is said that when Kūlanihāko‘i overflows it creates rain for the Hawaiian people. This giving level was established to honor donors whose annual gifts to the Pauahi Foundation total $10,000 or more. The overflowing generosity from donors in this hui makes a lasting impact into perpetuity.

KA HUI KILIHUNE: $1-$99

Kilihune is a fine light windblown mist. Just like a fine mist, donors surround us with their support. This hui highlights the importance of the act of giving and all gifts can make a difference. The hui was established to honor donors who made contributions of $1 to $99 during the fiscal year.

KA HUI AO 'ŌPIOPIO

Ao 'ōpiopio is a young cloud. It rises from sea level or close to the cloud banks and is as white as steam. When seen, this is a sign of rain. We use this metaphor for any current Kamehameha Schools student who gives to the Foundation and demonstrates student philanthropy.

「 O kēia ‘u‘uku e nui ana 」

This smallness will be big later.
 Said of a small child who will grow into adulthood, a small place that may develop into a large one, and so forth.

CLASS OF 2019

HONORS PRINCESS PAUAHI

When given the opportunity to give back through a special community service project, the seventh grade student council at the Kapālama campus relished at the opportunity to "pay it forward" to other Hawaiians through the Pauahi Foundation.

Their service project, which was coordinated by middle school teacher, Gay Murakami KSK'83, focused on raising funds for the Foundation while raising awareness for breast cancer.

"They chose the Foundation because they wanted to further extend the mission of Ke Ali'i Pauahi," said Murakami. "They also wanted to honor her as she had passed from cancer, so they felt it was a perfect match with the theme of their project."

Starting in October 2013, which is breast cancer awareness month, these student leaders from the class of 2019 sold free dress passes for a dollar each to their schoolmates. They also educated their fellow middle school students about breast cancer with handmade poster boards that included cancer facts, statistics and health information.

By month's end, these young leaders raised $434 and presented the gift to the Foundation at a check presentation ceremony in November.

"Once the students learned about the Pauahi Foundation and what this organization does, they were really excited to donate the funds to them," Murakami added.

CLASS OF 1950 PAYS IT FORWARD TOGETHER

When members of the class of 1950 come together every month, one can't help but notice the laughter, the light bickering, and the bond between this close-knit "kalabash" family.

"When I first came to Kamehameha as an 8th grader, I was so homesick that I cried," said Ku'ulei Sequeira Stender KSK'50, "But that all changed in high school. I couldn't wait to get back to campus because I missed my classmates."

Their energy and cohesiveness were the catalysts for the creation of their class scholarship, so much so that they raised $20,000 to establish the fund, which was 48 percent more than their goal.

"We will always be together, even the classmates who have passed," said Henry "Hank" Ahlo KSK'50, who, like some of his other classmates, makes a donation in honor of his deceased classmates, so they too can be recognized.

In July 2014, the Class of 1950's efforts came full circle when they awarded their first scholarship to a student.

"Thinking back on all we accomplished at Kamehameha and beyond, it's about paying it forward so that other Hawaiians have the opportunity to realize their dreams," said class representative, Hartwell Lee Loy KSK'50.

"Giving back is what we learned; it is a reflection of Pauahi," added classmate Augusta "Gussie" Rankin Bento KSK'50.

Just months after interviewing the class of 1950, the Kamehameha Schools 'ohana said goodbye to Henry Ahlo. He passed away on Feb. 1, 2015. Our deepest condolences to the Ahlo family and the class of 1950.

Many of our Kamehameha alumni have stepped forward to be raindrops for our Hawaiian community. Just like Pauahi's life-giving rain, their collective gifts will have a positive impact in perpetuity. The Foundation is grateful to have their leadership and support!

The staff members at the Pauahi Foundation and Kamehameha Schools are at the forefront of making positive change within our Hawaiian community. On a daily basis, they dedicate their time and knowledge to ensure our youth have an opportunity to excel in education, as well as in life. In addition to their hard work, many of them choose to give to the Foundation because they know firsthand that there are so many Hawaiians that still need help.

A young plant with large, vibrant green leaves is growing from a mound of dark brown, rich soil. The background is a blurred field of similar soil, suggesting a garden or agricultural setting. The lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the texture of the leaves and the soil.

ALUMNI WEEK MANPOWER TEAM

Every year in the first week of June, thousands of Kamehameha Schools alumni gather on the Kapālama campus for a week to reconnect and reminisce with classmates and other graduates. At week's end, one can't help but notice the happy faces as they leave campus with fond memories and a greater appreciation for the unique kinship they all share.

The success of this highly anticipated event is the result of hundreds of volunteers that make up the manpower team.

"The manpower team consists of dorm luna, bus drivers, staff members, their families and non-celebrating alumni," said Mervlyn Swain Kitashima KSK'73, Parent and Alumni Relations Administrator at Kapālama.

All play integral roles throughout the fun-filled week of events and activities. The dorm luna provide assistance from Tuesday to Sunday with the bus drivers being on call for all events. The remaining volunteers give their time from Monday to Sunday to ensure all the details are covered and the week runs smoothly.

Many of these volunteers take vacation from their real jobs to offer assistance for the entire week, and often times they are repeat volunteers.

"They are the unsung heroes of alumni week and we want to say mahalo palena'ole for the incredible job they do, and always with aloha and a smile," said Kitashima.
