i ke kā, i ka hoe; i ka hoe, i ke kā;
pae aku i ka ʻāina

Everybody paddle the canoes together,
bail and paddle, paddle and bail,
and the shore is reached
The mission of Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation is to support the mission of Kamehameha Schools by seeking and developing new and diverse sources of income to support the ever-increasing educational needs and goals of people of Hawaiian ancestry.

This report acknowledges those individuals and organizations that have made contributions to Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation from July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009. Please note that every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the donor list within this donor report, however errors may occur and we wish to apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. Please notify the Foundation at (808) 534-8966 of any corrections.
Aloha mai Kākou,

As the 2008-2009 fiscal year draws to a close, we are humbled by the generosity that you, Kamehameha Schools’ alumni, friends and ‘ohana have provided Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation this year. The word kōkua had special meaning to the Foundation this year. Through turbulent waters and uncertain terrain, you, Kamehameha Schools’ alumni, friends and ‘ohana have remained steadfast—your dedication to our mission is a true testament to the help you have shown each haumāna we’ve touched on all three campuses and deep into our Hawaiian communities.

With over $390,000 in total contributions during the 2008-2009 fiscal year, the Foundation was able to focus on fundraising with four stakeholder groups, Kamehameha alumni, faculty and staff, students and parents. These groups have historically been our strongest supporters, and they continue to give generously to further the mission of the Foundation.

In addition, we are very excited by our 2008 workplace giving campaign that ran from October to November, and although it occurred during what some would describe as the worst part of the recession, Kamehameha faculty and staff members surpassed the 2007 campaign total by donating or pledging nearly $90,000 to the Foundation.

Throughout this report you will find profiles and quotes from scholarship donors and recipients that illustrate the Foundation’s core mission to advance educational opportunities for more Hawaiians.

Students like Jonathan Ching who attends the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa pursuing his doctorate degree in Architecture and Engineering, is just an example of your generosity in action. A graduate from Lahainaluna High School, he received the Ann H. Meyers Scholarship. In addition to his academic aspirations, Jonathan gives back to his Hawaiian community by volunteering with community organizations like Hakipu‘u Learning Center and the Protect Kaho‘olawe ‘Ohana.

A Ke Kula ‘o Samuel M. Kamakau graduate, Leah Enos attends the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo, fulfilling her dream of one day becoming an ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i teacher to serve our Hawaiian communities. As a recipient of the Dan and Rachel Mahi Scholarship, Leah’s vision to educate her community can now be a reality.

In an effort to increase and expand the Foundation’s scholarship program, the Foundation continues to explore the best way to maximize the number of Hawaiian students that are eligible for its awards—offering life-changing educational opportunities to native Hawaiians across the state and on the continent.

Me ka mahalo, me ka ha‘aha‘a.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT SPOTLIGHT

JONATHAN CHING
Lahainaluna High School
University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
Architecture and Engineering

Ann H. Meyers Scholarship
At a young age, Jonathan Ching knew he was destined for a life-changing journey as a student of life and academia.

“I have dedicated my life to perpetuating the teachings of our kūpuna and our rich culture, traditions and practices incorporated with the teachings of the western learning system and technological advances to benefit Hawai‘i and the people who live here.”

As a freshman in high school the field of architecture called to him. Through his commitment to his work, his surroundings and his love for ‘āina and those who thrive here, Jonathan’s love for the field’s diversity and the potential effect it can have on others will sustain him.

LEAH ENOS
Ke Kula ’o Samuel M. Kamakau
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo
Hawaiian Studies/Language

Dan and Rachel Mahi Scholarship
Looking forward to a life of service to her people, Leah Enos’ dream of becoming a teacher is now possible with the help of Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation.

“My goal in life is to receive degrees in Pre-education and Hawaiian Studies so that I am able to give back to my kūpuna, community and future generations—I want to instill in them, the possibilities and education I have been privileged to learn and someday teach.” Hoping to complete a master’s degree in Hawaiian Language and Education at the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo, Leah is eager educate young Native Hawaiians about their culture and history and to inspire other Hawai‘i educators to grow.
MARISA JOY KELLET
Kamehameha Schools
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo
Pharmacy
Kamehameha Schools Class of 1968
“Ka Poli O Kaiona” Scholarship
Pursuing a degree in Pharmacy from the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo, Marisa Joy Kellet will make it her life’s work to change the face of healthcare and medicine for Native Hawaiians.

“As a pharmacist I am determined to serve as a liaison between the world of science and medicine and the Native Hawaiian community. I’ll strive to bridge the gap between these two realms thereby increasing the understanding of healthcare matters for Native Hawaiian people... I’ll work with great passion, humility and sincerity to provide quality healthcare by treating patients like ‘ohana, not numbers...”

JORDAN SOUZA
Kamehameha Schools
University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
Pacific Island Studies
Native Hawaiian Visual Arts Scholarship
With commitment and conviction, Jordan Souza hopes one day he will be at the genesis of an indigenous art school in Hawai‘i.

“My dream is to open or help facilitate an indigenous art school in Hawai‘i. I believe such a place should exist as such places exist throughout the Pacific and are landmarks to the revival of pacific cultures.”

While focusing on Indigenous and Contemporary Art at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, Jordan’s passion for Native Hawaiian art has lead to teaching opportunities at Windward Community College’s outreach program and Kāne‘ohe District Park’s art classes for keiki.

DOLLY TATOFI
Roosevelt High School
University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
Social Work
Makaloa Scholarship
No stranger to caring for others, Dolly Tatofi has made it her life’s work to care about the welfare of Hawai‘i’s people.

“I feel that I have a passion (to care for others) and I am well on my way to achieving this goal as I can’t stop thinking about solutions to make things better in our communities in Hawai‘i and in general.”

“I have been taught great lessons and find it a blessing that I have returned to school to be able to increase my knowledge and also reconnect with what it means to be Hawaiian...that I cannot let my culture die. I am determined to help my Hawaiian community in any which way I can.”

ADVANCING EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
FOR MORE HAWAIIANS

In addition to the scholarships that Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation administers, there are four areas of interest where donors may designate their support to assist more children of Hawaiian ancestry.

Charter School Support
One of the ways in which Pauahi’s legacy is being extended to reach haumāna who are not able to attend Kamehameha Schools’ campuses is through Charter School support. The Foundation is helping to build awareness and get support for these courageous schools that give haumāna a choice at a culturally rich education.

Hawaiian-focused start-up public Charter schools offer unique services to children and families based on culturally grounded pedagogy and instruction. Haumāna attending these Charter Schools achieve marked academic improvement, become leaders in all that they do and represent their kūpuna well.

The demand for culturally relevant education is growing. Most Charter Schools have wait lists of students who would like to attend but aren’t able to because of limited funding for facilities and operations. Some schools are operating out of temporary facilities and funding their activities from their own pockets.

Through Kamehameha Schools’ Ho‘olako Līke program, each of the 14 Hawaiian-Focused Charter Schools are given assistance with their daily operational needs and facility improvements. While these schools are doing an excellent job with the limited resources they have, they could do even more with our kōkua.

Early Childhood Education and Literacy
The Early Childhood Education and Literacy Fund is very important to the Foundations’ mission to serve more children of Hawaiian ancestry. By providing literacy support to students, their parents and caregivers, and by promoting culturally relevant learning, these keiki will get the kōkua they need to achieve future success in school.

Additionally, the Foundation and the Harold K.L. Castle Foundation have partnered to support literacy education programs in Windward O’ahu public schools. Studies have shown that increasing competence in writing and reading predicts future success in school. Simple skills that many of us take for granted are not guaranteed, so the support that comes from our Foundation and others makes a lifetime difference.

Advancing the Hawaiian Language
Contributions made to Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation for the purpose of Advancing the Hawaiian Language will assist efforts to preserve Hawaiian language and heritage, like the work of Aha Pūnana Leo, Hawaiian immersion schools or other efforts to build and share ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i. The Foundation is also working with Kamehameha Publishing to distribute books written in ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i to K-12 schools throughout Hawai‘i.

Land Stewardship
Funds raised through the Foundation’s Land Stewardship Fund will support efforts to mālama I ka ‘āina. Historically, land has always been an integral part of Hawaiian culture. Through support from our generous donors, the Foundation will support those who are preserving these precious lands for all generations, assuring that precious natural and cultural resources are cared for.
SCHOLARSHIP DONOR SPOTLIGHT

Isaac and Mary Harbottle Scholarship

The Lokomaika‘i Scholarship was established by Lee Takamori, ’74 and the Takamori ‘ohana. Honored to help others in their pursuit of higher education, the Takamori ‘ohana began their scholarship on the values of reciprocity and to give unconditionally. It was important to Takamori to align the scholarship’s eligibility criteria purposefully—providing flexible funds to support Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation’s top priorities and extraordinary opportunities for students.

By making a gift of stock and receiving a matching fund through the Foundation, the Takamori ‘ohana was successful in establishing this valuable endowment.

“All the key elements for this scholarship came together—from the value of education that my parents taught, my ‘ohana approval, setting an example for my children that it’s better to give than to receive, to seeing my class endow a scholarship,” said Takamori. “If you love and believe in something or someone, the best thing is to give unconditionally. My ‘ohana is very fortunate to have the opportunity to help others on their educational journey.”

Lokomaika‘i Scholarship

In 2009, 25 members from the ‘ohana of Isaac Hakuole and Mary Kaimookalani Kamaolipua Okuu Pi‘ikoi Harbottle completed a multi-year goal to collectively donate funds and initiate an endowed scholarship. This new scholarship is offered in the 2010 season and challenges recipients to keep the native Hawaiian culture alive through education, community organization and/or spiritual development.

“The grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren of Isaac Hakuole and Mary Kamaolipua Kaimookalani Pi‘ikoi Okuu Harbottle were enthusiastic and blessed in establishing the Isaac and Mary Harbottle Scholarship through Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation”, said Ralph Aona, Harbottle ‘ohana representative. “This Scholarship was established to perpetuate and honor the legacy of Isaac and Mary Harbottle; keep the Harbottle ‘ohana connected and strong; and sustain a healthy community by embracing the value of education for native Hawaiians. Mahalo to the Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation for assisting us in establishing this scholarship to honor Isaac and Mary Harbottle—educators and spiritual and community leaders.”
Ke Aliʻi Pauahi Foundation is grateful to all of the Kamehameha Schools’ alumni for their overwhelming support, generous gifts and spirit of kahiau to support the Foundations’ mission.

Contributions to Ke Ali‘i Pauahi Foundation reflect gifts from the heart and will help to carry forward the vision of Ke Ali‘i Pauahi to empower Hawaiians through education. The Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) tax exempt organization; therefore, contributions made to the Foundation are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. Additionally, 100 percent of your gift goes to help others as Kamehameha Schools covers the Foundation’s administrative and overhead expenses.

Unrestricted Donations: Unrestricted gifts allow the Foundation the flexibility to respond to the areas of most critical need. These outright gifts include cash, appreciated property (real estate, stock) or tangible personal property.

Restricted Donations: Restricted gifts define a program, project or scholarship of special interest to the donor.

Tribute Gifts: Tribute gifts are made in honor or in memory of individuals, family members, friends or colleagues who have inspired you or touched your heart. This is a meaningful way to honor loved ones in perpetuity.

Future Gifts: A future gift is arranged now, but the Foundation’s use of the funds is delayed to a later time. The funds from a bequest are available to utilize at the end of the donor’s life. Other ways of making a future gift are naming the Foundation as beneficiary of a portion of an IRA or other retirement plan, or life insurance policy, or establishing a charitable remainder trust with the principal payable to the Foundation when the trust terminates.

Corporate Matching Gifts: Corporations will often match an employee’s charitable gift dollar for dollar. Please check with your employer to see if your contribution qualifies for this category.
